

AIM : To create a storyboard for a scenarioOBJECTIVE :

The objective of using a storyboard helps to kick start your design process. It allows you to align and organise your thoughts as well as solidifying your learning content. Doing a storyboard makes it easier to share your ideas, and share it with experts to ensure your content is correct.

THEORY :What is a storyboard?

A storyboard is a graphic organizer that consists of illustrations or images displayed in sequence for the purpose of pre-visualising a motion picture, animation, motion graphic or interactive media sequence. The storyboarding process, in the form it is known today, was developed at Walt Disney Productions during the early 1930s, after several years of similar processes being in use at Walt Disney and other animation studios.

CONCLUSION :

From this experiment we understood what is a storyboard. The storyboard is a very important part of the pre-production process because it clearly conveys how the story will flow, as you can see how your shots work together. It also allows you to see potential problems that would not go unnoticed, ultimately saving you time and money. Finally we created a storyboard for A day in school.
